

TIM ETCHELLS AND ANT HAMPTON

NOT TO SCALE

1 Oct & 4-8 OCT
FILMBASE

Not to Scale is a full-length autoteatro performance which draws two participants into shared experiments and intertwined processes of drawing, erasing and listening. Guided by a soundtrack, you create a shared journey using pencil on paper. Crude doodles soon come to life in a comical and unsettling picture book narrative that plays constantly with the tension between creation and destruction, life and death, energy and entropy.

Stories, pictures, ideas appear and disappear constantly on the page, and start to unfold into a lo-fi carnival of possibility.

DIRECTOR NOTE

When Tim and I were creating The Quiet Volume in 2010, the idea emerged for another audio-led piece that would involve just paper, pencil and eraser. It was in some ways quite lucky that we had started to work on this particular idea – on the shelf for over a decade –when the pandemic hit because it turned out to involve a process that was possible to maintain over distance... even if we did prefer our earlier sessions together in the same space (in Brussels, Berlin, on the train between the two or, most often, on Tim's kitchen table in London).
